Just wanted to put forward another program that fixed searching for items in my outlook (the latest update). This program was recommended by a Senior at my University. I have used it for a while now and am very satisfied with it's results. I have tried dozens of programs that claim to fix the issue of "Outlook search folders" and none of them worked for me. "Outlook Fix Search Folders" in contrast to other programs I tested, actually worked for me. For any program to work successfully, it must be installed in the SYSTEM32 directory. I hate most programs that are installed to the PROGRAM Files directory. I manually put the application in the SYSTEM32 directory, and it works fine. The program that I found the easiest to use is "Outlook Fix Search Folders". "Outlook

Fix Search Folders" is much easier to use than most of the other programs I used before. It can be set to automatically launch itself at startup. The program is available from the MS website. If you ever become a victim of the "Outlook Search
